USA (METER), a company organized and existing under the laws of Washington State with its head office located at 2365 NE Hopkins Court, Pullman, WA 99163 and _____ (the "Client") a company organized and existing under the laws of _____ State with its head office located at _____, _____, _____.

PAYMENT AGREEMENT. METER sells Client the articles described in the Sales Order upon the terms set forth below. Client, given the choice of paying the net price or the time price in the installments below, agrees to pay METER, or its assigns at its offices at the address shown above. It is agreed the Client shall make payments in the amount and for the period set forth below until the total balance has been paid.

Purchase price, including shipping charges and applicable sales tax will be $_____, payable in ____ consecutive installments of $_____ each. The down payment of $_____, which includes the shipping cost, applicable sales tax, and the first installment payment, shall be due and payable on the effective date, and consecutive installments will be due by the 15th of the month.

Monthly software subscription payments are invoiced separately.

PAYMENT. Client will provide METER with valid and updated credit card information. Client authorizes METER to charge such credit card for all monthly payments. Client is responsible for providing complete and accurate billing and contact information to METER and notifying METER of any changes to such information. This agreement may be prepaid, in full or in part, at any time prior to the maturity date without premium or penalty.

SUSPENSION OF SERVICE. If any amount owing by Client under this or any other agreement with METER is seven (7) business days overdue, METER may, without limiting our other rights and remedies, suspend service until such amounts are paid in full.

RETENTION OF SECURITY INTEREST. Until all installment payments, and all other amounts due under this agreement, have been paid, METER shall retain a security interest in the goods and any and all equipment, parts, accessories, attachments, additions, and other goods and all replacements of them installed in, affixed to, or used in connection with the goods or, if Client sells or otherwise disposes of the goods in violation of the terms of this agreement, in the proceeds of such sale or disposition

INSURANCE. Client will insure the goods against all hazards in form and amounts and with an insurance satisfactory to METER. If Client fails to obtain insurance, METER shall have the right to obtain it at Client's expense without waiver of any other remedy and Client assigns to METER all right to receive proceeds of insurance not exceeding the unpaid balance (including any costs of collection, attorney's fees, or other costs actually incurred in connection with it) and directs any insurer to pay all proceeds directly to METER. In the event of damage to the goods and payment of insurance, METER shall have the option of replacing the goods or applying the proceeds on any obligation secured by this agreement. METER may upon default under this agreement, or default in the payment or performance of any obligation secured by this agreement, cancel any insurance on goods after repossession of them or on that portion of the goods repossessed if less than all.

MAINTENANCE. Client will keep the goods in good condition and free from liens and other security interests, will pay promptly all taxes and assessments upon them or with respect to their use, will not use the goods illegally or dispose of or encumber them, and will not remove the goods from the premises to which they are delivered as stated in the face of this contract without the prior written consent of METER.

EVENTS OF DEFAULT. The occurrence of any of the following shall constitute a default under this agreement: (1) failure of Client to perform any obligation or agreements specified in this agreement, or if any warranty or representation made under this agreement by Client should prove to be materially incorrect; (2) the dissolution, merger, consolidation, or reorganization of any corporate Client or corporate obligor on such obligation; (3) the institution of any proceeding in bankruptcy, receivership, or insolvency against Client or against any secured obligation or the institution by any party of action for attachment or similar process; or (4) the default by Client under any other contract obligations or installment sale security agreement between the parties to this security agreement.

REMEDIES ON DEFAULT. In the event of a default, or if METER or its assignee shall consider the payment for the balance of the installment payments insecure, METER shall have the right to obtain judgment for the amount of the installments delinquent under the contract plus interest at eighteen (18) percent on such delinquent payments from
